

LUANNE CLARKE

As a founding partner of the firm, Moore, Clarke, DuVall & Rodgers, PC, Ms. Clarke defends individuals and business entities in civil litigation with an emphasis in personal injury, employment, and workers' compensation claims. With offices located in Albany, Atlanta and Valdosta, Savannah, and strong connections to Columbus, Ms. Clarke is able to assist clients in a cost-effective manner throughout the State. She has successfully represented her firm's clients in hundreds of disputes. She has been and is recognized as a Preeminent Lawyer for 15+ years, she has been and is recognized as a Super Lawyer and has long been given an A + rating by Martindale Hubbell.

From before the enactment of the original ADA in 1993, Ms. Clarke has advised clients with employment issues be it ADA, FMLA, sexual harassment, race discrimination and the like.

As a founding owner of Mediated Dispute Resolutions, LLC, Ms. Clarke currently serves as a certified registered mediator and arbitrator in dispute resolution throughout the State. She is honored to be inducted in the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals and is registered with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution. She is grateful to be chosen to participate in hundreds of mediations - most of which have been successfully resolved on the day of or through continued efforts away from the caucus rooms. Ms. Clarke participates in all types of mediations (except domestic) but specializes in employment related matters involving EEOC claims and workers' compensation claims.
